Situation
The bank account of the Sub Branch was not linked to incorporation and hence the bank could not create a bank account.
Reference
Club Constitution, Raising a New Sub Branch, Section 137
Result
The Sub Branch advised NAT HQ of their situation. NAT HQ advised that incorporation in the relevant State had to be completed to ensure a incorporation number was issued, giving the bank the necessary information to create a bank account for the Sub Branch.
Previous Results
Without an incorporation number, a bank account can only be opened in the name of a member, thereby risking any monies deposited in that account.
