Situation
A member took off his colours and 'demonstrated' that unless the Sub Branch adhered to our CREDO and showed solidarity as one Sub Branch (Club), he would not wear his colours again.
Reference
Club Constitution, Club Standard of Dress, Section 37 onwards.
Result
The member was brought before the Executive and asked to explain his actions. The member advised all present (general meeting) that his actions were based on a personal appeal to all members to observe the 'brotherhood' nature of our Club. Service Members at the meeting did not disagree with his intentions, however, there was never an excuse for disregarding your colours. The member was subsequently stripped of his Executive position. The member still remains a full member of the Club.
