

I am a member of the Military Brotherhood MMC. I am proud to wear the MB breast patch and regalia, to demonstrate my roots, my heritage, my commitment and those qualities others expect. My back patch tells you which branch of the ADF I served with, the service I am so proud of, and why I am who I am.

I will always assist my fellow member because he/she also served and has experienced what I have experienced ... and maybe more. This makes us closer than we would normally be. We have a common heritage. This alone binds us forever.

I will always be a member regardless of where I am. I am nurtured by the local Chapter in my home location, but I can live anywhere as a member. I am not tied down by a 'location rocker'. My home is Australia, and I am and always will be a proud Australian.

My Chapter Executive looks after my interests. I am not told what to do, but I tell them what I need. Each of my Executive members has one vote like I do so they are on the same level that I am. No Executive member is better than I am. We are equal as members. Together we make the Chapter operate effectively. Together, with all the other members, we are the Military Brotherhood MMC.

I follow our motto "The Task is Ours" and strive to help all service members whether in the Club or not. Our credo is indisputable. Our credo says "If I falter, I know my fellow members will stand by me and help me. I will always do the same for them. If I fall, I will be lifted. If I see my brother fall I will lift him. If we fall together, then we will rise again, and again, and again". That is our credo and it is indisputable.
